Lebanon smacks VHS

Lebanon 10 Virginia 4

Lebanon went through three Bearcat pitchers smacking out thirteen hits to take a 10-4 win in the semifinals of the District Tournament. Brayden Rawson got the start and went 4.67 innings giving up three runs on six hits. The Pioneers exploded for seven runs in the final two innings. Virginia High fell apart at the seams on defense in the sixth with multiple errors combined with a flurry of Lebanon hits. Offensively Virginia High was lead at the plate with Matthew Hunt crushing a triple and a double along with Gavin Leonard's two doubles. Aaron Rose added a pair of hits.
