Virginia High - Bristol, Virginia

Bearcats ease by Lebanon

Virginia 12 Lebanon 5

Virginia High used eleven hits and took advantage of seven Lebanon errors to take a easy 12-5 win in their first game after returning from Myrtle Beach. The game remained scoreless until the Bearcats broke loose with five runs in the bottom of the third and added three more in the fourth. Starting pitcher Desmond Austin kept the Pioneers hitless for four innings before giving up a pair of doubles in the fifth. Lebanon rallied with three runs but VHS answered back with three of their own in the bottom half. Bobby Medley and Matthew Hunt each finished with two hits for the night.
