VA High takes win over Knoxville Christian

Virginia 12 Knoxville Christian 10

Virginia High claimed a 12-10 win over Knoxville Christian in their second game of the FCA Bristol Bash. Zach Griffith belted a three RBI double in the fifth inning that proved to be the game winner. VHS spotted the visiting Knox Christian school four runs in the first inning but followed up with four of their own in the second and pushed five more across the plate in the third. Knox Christian came back with three in the sixth and seventh innings and left the bases loaded in the seventh. Brayden Rawson earned the win with four innings of work on the mound and T D Sizemore closed out the seventh to get the Save.
