

BEARCAT BASEBALL

Virginia High - Bristol, Virginia

Cal Ripken

The Bearcats travel to Myrtle Beach for three games at the Cal Ripken complex. Virginia High will face Raceland on Monday, Ashland Blazer on Tuesday and finish up with Louisville Male on Wednesday. All Bearcat opponents come from Kentucky.

Virginia High rolls over for Ashland Blazer

Ashland Blazer 14 VHS 6

Ashland Blazer spotted the Bearcats six runs to start the game but Virginia High then rolled over and allowed the Ashland team to dominate for the remainder of the game giving up eighteen hits in the 14-6 loss. Starting pitcher Noah Rasnick held the opponents scoreless for the first two innings before giving up hit after hit in the third to put the Kentucky team back in the game. Reliever Brayden Rawson was unable to stop the bleeding and the Bearcat defense fell apart with several errors along with mental mistakes. Virginia High had five of their seven hits in the first two innings.